

NINETEEN NINETY-EIGHT

Chief's Awards

FEBRUARY	Minneapolis Police Officer Gregory G. Zipoy	For responding to numerous calls, providing assistance and effecting the arrest of a burglar during a time when the Saint Paul Police Department was relying on other departments for assistance.
	Ramsey County Sheriff Deputy Jeffery Henriksen	While off duty and in St. Paul, he observed a car that he recalled had been taken in a carjacking. He used his cell phone to direct St. Paul squads to the car. As the car attempted to flee squads, it crashed and the suspects fled on foot. Deputy Henriksen caught the driver and then provided detailed descriptions that led to the capture of the remaining suspects.
APRIL	Ms. Nina Bohme	For reporting information to the police department and assisting in locating a house where a female victim was being held. Numerous suspects were arrested. In a time when the norm is to remain noncommittal and uninvolved, Ms. Bohme chose to take action and help another person.
OCTOBER	Federal Bureau of Investigation Special Agent Grant Beise	For his contribution in his capacity as an FBI Organized Crime Drug Task Force/Saint Paul Police co-agent in both a drug/homicide case and the 603/Six Mob Gangsters drug/homicide investigation where five children were killed.
	Investigative Assistant Geraldine Saylor	For her contribution to the St. Paul Police Department in her capacity as an FBI Investigative Assistant during the 603/Six Mob Gangster drug/homicide investigation.
	U.S. Attorney J. Paulson	For his performance inside and outside the courtroom described as nothing short of exceptional. The commitment and skill he brought to this prosecution was responsible for numerous federal drug violations and the first "RICO" murder conviction in the 603/Six Mob Gangster murder trial.

Part I Offenses

Includes justifiable homicides, 3 in 1996, 1 in 1997, 1 in 1998

Offense totals consist of calls for service in which an official report is filed with the police department. Except for homicide, offense totals represent crime events, not victims. If a report is written for a person who committed three offenses, the crime event will be categorized under the incident code of the most serious offense.
